

The Rules Of Association Football 1863 The First Fa Rule Book Original Rules

The rules of association football were codified in England by the Football Association in 1863 and the name association football was coined to distinguish the game from the other forms of football played at the time, specifically rugby football. The first written "reference to the inflated ball used in the game" was in the mid-14th century: "Pe heued fro þe body went, als it were a foteballe". The first set of football rules was drawn up at the University of Cambridge in 1848 and became particularly influential in the development of subsequent codes, including association football. As the Cambridge Rules, they were written at Trinity College, Cambridge, at a meeting called for by H. de Winton and J. C. Thring from Shrewsbury and chaired by Henry Charles Malden with 33,000+ free ebooks online. Did you know that you can help us produce ebooks by proof-reading just one page a day?
