

This Dark Earth

But John Hornor Jacobs' "This Dark Earth" is an engrossing, entertaining, and well-written book. It just happens to concern zombies. To say it is a great zombie novel for people who don't like zombies does it a disservice--because as I found, you'll probably end up feeling it is a great read for people who didn't know they liked zombie novels. This Dark Earth proves there's still some life in this wasteland of a genre yet." – Rue Morgue Magazine "This Dark Earth is a smart, thoughtful look at the end of humanity that delivers horrifying detail packed with an emotional resonance. His second novel, This Dark Earth, was published. He is also, in his copious spare time, a novelist, represented by Stacia Decker of the Donald Maass Literary Agency. His first novel, Southern Gods, was published by Night Shade Books and shortlisted for the Bram Stoker Award. This Dark Earth takes place over a five-year time period. Many of the chapters are told in the first-person, each by a different member of the main cast. This method may at first seem odd but it works well with this author and the even, fast flow is never lost. This Dark Earth - Kindle Edition by John Hornor Jacobs.
